The long awaited return of Queen - well, at least half of the band - arrives this coming Tuesday with guitarist Brian May and drummer Roger Taylor backing former Bad Company vocalist Paul Rodgers

. The stargazing album's title The Cosmos Rocks

is rather fitting, with May's recent doctorate in astrophysics. Sorry, but his Ph.D. thesis, A Survey of Radial Velocities in the Zodiacal Dust Cloud, is not included in the liner notes.

Fans across America get a special front-row experience on November 6 when more than 400 movie theaters - including Showcase 53 in Davenport - present Queen + Paul Rodgers: Let the Cosmos Rock in a special

The Lamb Lies Down on Broadway

with 5.1-channel mixes and many rarities

Kaiser Chiefs - Off with Their Heads (Universal) with guest Lily Allen

John Legend - Evolver (Columbia) with guests Andre 3000 and Kanye West; a deluxe edition comes with a bonus DVD

The Matthew Herbert Big Band - There's Me & There's You (!K7 Records) fascinating avant-big-band-jazz love child of Raymond Scott and Prince; this protest album is colored with unusual samples with a performance-art pedigree, such as the track "Yessness," using 100 people saying "yes"

Joey + Rory - The Life of a Song (Sugar Hill) featuring heart-stirring country ballads and a love for a simpler time, the husband-and-wife duo lays out a must-hear, slowed-down, pensive take on Lynyrd Skynyrd's classic "Freebird"

Lunatic Soul - Lunatic Soul (KScope) cinematic debut from Mariusz Duda of Riverside

OMFGG: Music Featured on Gossip Girl No. 1 - original television series soundtrack (Atlantic) featuring the Ting Tings, Phantom Planet, the Virgins, Republic Tigers, Crystal Castles, The Kooks, and a cool cover of Siouxsie & the Banshees' "Cities in Dust" by Junkie XL

Pink - Fun House (LaFace) featuring the single "So What"

Rewiring Genesis - A Tribute to the Lamb Lies Down on Broadway (Prog Rock Records) two-CD, song-by-song reinterpretation of the classic Genesis album from the Peter Gabriel era, given a theatric new life by Nick D'Virgilio of Spock's Beard and a band of Nashville session players

Boz Scaggs - Speak Low (Decca) collection of standards by Rodgers & Hart, Ellington, and Johnny Mercer

School of Seven Bells - Alpinisms (Ghostly International) taking their name from a mythical school for pickpockets and soon to tour with M83, this soaring psychedelic spinner from Benjamin Curtis of Secret Machines and an ethereal pair of twin vocalists shimmers and dives like electronic starlings in flight

Sly & Robbie/Amp Fiddler - Inspiration Information (Strut) collaboration from the reggae icons and the Detroit soul vocalist, taking a long, slow draw from the funk pipe on terrific new original jams and a reworking of George Clinton's "Paint the White House Black"

State of Shock - Life, Love, & Lies (Universal Republic) debut from Canada featuring the smash hit "Money Honey" and two new songs on this stateside release

T. Raumschmiere - I Tank You (Shitkatapult) bite-down-hard techno beats and crushed-black-velvet fuzz with guests Tim Vanhamel of Deus, Warren Suicide, and Puppetmastaz; also available in a two-CD set with a bonus disc of instrumental versions

Tractor Kings - Homesick (Spur/Parasol) featuring a reverb-soaked, knee-slapping cover of Bob Dylan's "Masters of War"

Unbunny - Sensory Underload (Hidden Agenda) 18 singles and long lost EP tracks from Jarid del Deo's alter ego

Lucinda Williams - Lu in 08 (Lost Highway) four-song digital-only EP featuring the new, politically inspired "Bone of Contention," covers of Buffalo Springfield's "For What It's Worth"
