Vinyl purists who dig the deep glossy black pizza can salivate in the news that MCA and the Hendrix Experience imprint have announced that in mid-September they'll release an 8-LP box set of Jimi Hendrix rarities. Simply titled The Jimi Hendrix Experience, this snappy collection will come in a purple velvet case featuring a holographic, previously unpublished cover photo of the band, a 12-inch-by-12-inch 40-page booklet of examples of Hendrix's handwritten lyrics, and more rare photos by Linda McCartney, Karl Ferris, and Dave Sygall. The eight LPs, pressed on 180-gram audiophile vinyl, cover 56 tracks over four hours – all rare and alternative takes. And yes, a CD version will be available as well ... . Lookout Records serves up a tasty various-artists sampler this Tuesday, calling all garage rockin' punks to its

Lookout! Freakout! Shindig

. The super cheap 24-track sampler collects previously unreleased tracks from

Squirtgun, Pansy Division, Groovie Ghoulies, The Smugglers, Ann Beretta, The Mopes, Black Cat Music, Common Rider

, and more ... . Speaking of well-done samplers, this Tuesday also brings the fifth and sixth volumes of Tee Pee Records'

A Fistful Of Rock 'n Roll

series. The brainchild and passion of

Electric Frankenstein

guitarist Sal Canzonieri, the series gathers up the best in today's best hard, garage-punk-tinged, glue-sniffin' riff rock loaded with lots of rare and alternative tracks, enhanced-CD-ROM material featuring links to the bands' web sites, and additional artwork. Artists to be found on these two new volumes include

The Dwarves, Trash Brats, Jack Saints, Bobby Teens, Sonny Vincent with Ron & Scott Ashton, The Damned's Captain Sensible

, and many more.

Television Alert:

The Tonight Show with Jay Leno welcomes Motley Crue on Thursday, Bon Jovi on Monday, and Eve 6 on Tuesday.
