Harvest Hop!

The District of Rock Island

Friday, September 29, 5 p.m.

We've recently taken on an editorial intern named Brad, and one of Brad's weekly duties is to compose one of these calendar-section notices. I thought about assigning him this piece on the District of Rock Island's latest Gallery Hop!, taking place from 5 to 9 p.m. on September 29, as I've already written several for previous Hops. But when I heard this one was dubbed Harvest Hop!, I couldn't bear to part with it - so many opportunities for good-natured gags! At this autumnal event, you'll be treated to in-store specials from over 20 participating local business, "harvest-themed food" throughout the District, and works by numerous area artists, including Jay Stratton, Corrine Smith, Lance Baker, Mary Koener-Clausen, and Elizabeth Shriver. There will be laughs courtesy of the improv experts of ComedySportz, performing a two-for-one-admission show. Steve's Old Time Tap features the 97ROCK home-run derby. Trolley rides are available to and from each hot spot. And, finally, several local watering holes will be open, allowing you to end your Harvest Hop adventure by getting plowed! Ha ha ha! Get it?
