Adler Theatre Events

December through March

As a famed singing novice once crooned, "The hills are alive with the sound of music." Just as the halls of the Adler Theatre will be when the Davenport venue offers its audiences a lengthy list of musical treats over the next three months.

After Ballet Quad Cities' The Nutcracker on December 13 and 14, the theatre will present the Christian pop and rock of Go Fish on December 18, followed by December 20's national tour of American Idol Stars: Live in Concert, featuring Idol finalists Chikezie, David Hernandez, Kimberly Locke, and Diana DeGarmo.

This season's Broadway at the Adler series continues with the Tony-winning musical The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee on January 26, Dirty Rotten Scoundrels (by The Full Monty's David Yazbek) on February 11, and the ABBA phenomenon that is Mamma Mia! on March 14 and 15.

The Quad City Symphony Orchestra will play the Adler twice over the next 99 days, offering the "B list" trio of Barber, Beethoven, and Brahms in January 31's Masterworks IV concert, and Tchaikovsky, Schuman, and more with March 7's Masterworks V.

Oh ... and I'm just receiving a two-page fax here ... it looks like the Adler will also host blues dynamo George Thorogood on March 1, and folk-singer extraordinaire Gordon Lightfoot (pictured) on March 11. Talk about a winter worth singing about!

For more information on these events, visit AdlerTheatre.com, and ... .

Wait a second... .

It seems it was a three-page fax, and the Adler will also be hosting the Genesis HealthQuest Film Series presentation of Frank Capra's It's a Wonderful Life on December 19. A movie with almost no singing, dancing, or musical instruments.

Oh, thanks a lot, Adler! And I had such a nice motif going there... ! - Mike Schulz
