Comedy

Jennifer Coolidge

Penguin's Comedy Club

Friday, February 19, and Saturday, February 20

My guess is that you saw the photo accompanying this piece and immediately thought one of three things: (1) "Oh ... it's Jennifer Coolidge! I love her!" (2) "Oh ... it's that actress from Legally Blonde and those Christopher Guest movies! I love her!" (3) "Holy crap! Stifler's mom"

! I freakin'
love
her!!!"

No matter your response, you're right ... though if you leaned toward response three, you really should get to the cineplex more often. Since her iconic turn as American Pie's modern-day Mrs. Robinson, Coolidge has been one of Hollywood's most in-demand and adored comic actresses, contributing to 33 movies (plus 18 TV series) since 2000. Yet as a former member of the Los Angeles-based comedy troupe the Groundlings, she's also an accomplished stand-up performer, which local audiences will quickly glean during Coolidge's February 19 and 20 sets at Penguin's Comedy Club.

Still, you just know some audience member is going to welcome her to the Davenport stage with a hearty "Stifler's mom!!!" So to avoid being That Guy, match these Jennifer Coolidge films with her roles in them, and counter that inevitable Penguin's greeting with a more original one.

1) Legally Blonde

2) Bad Lieutenant: Port of Call New Orleans

3) Date Movie

4) Lemony Snicket's A Series of Unfortunate Events

5) A Cinderella Story

Answers: 1 - D, 2 - A, 3 - G, 4 - F, 5 - C, 6 - E, 7 - B. And if you had no clue about either of those last two, I'm afraid we're no longer on speaking terms. Sorry, Mother.

Music

Rascal Flatts and Darius Rucker

i wireless Center

Saturday, February 20, 8 p.m.

Bryan Adams

The Capitol Theatre

Tuesday, February 23, 8 p.m.

"Tell me about the first dream, Mike."

"This was a strange one, doctor. It was just me and my gang in Mayberry, talkin' about fast cars and freedom and prayin' for daylight. I felt unstoppable here. But my wish was to be a winner at a losing game, bless the broken road, and embrace this everyday love. I shouted, 'What hurts the most is that while you loved me, I'm movin' on these days! Why?!'"

"Let me stop you, Mike. I think you were dreaming about the multi-platinum-selling country band Rascal Flatts. You just referenced 15 of the group's hit songs."

"But then, a man walked up to me, making sounds like an owl and holding a blowfish. I gave him a strange look, and he said, 'Don't think I don't think about it. But it's alright. It won't be like this for long. It's actually history in the making, and'"

"I'm going to stop you again, since you just mentioned four hit singles by Hootie & the Blowfish frontman Darius Rucker. Obviously, you're thinking about writing a piece on February 20's country-music spectacular at Moline's i wireless Center - the Unstoppable Tour 2010 - where Rucker is opening for Rascal Flatts. I understand that the show starts at 8 p.m., and that tickets are available by calling (800)745-3000 or visiting iwirelessCenter.com."

"Wow ... that makes perfect sense!"

"So what was your other dream, Mike?"

"This one was even weirder, doc. I was dreaming that it was a few days from now - February 23, I think - and I was at Davenport's Capitol Theatre. It was about 8 p.m., and the lights dimmed, and then Grammy- and Oscar-nominated rocker Bryan Adams appeared on stage! It was nuts! He sang all of his hits: 'Cuts Like a Knife' and 'Summer of '69' and '(Everything I Do) I Do It for You' and 'Open Road' and 'Can't Stop This Thing We Started' and a whole bunch more. Then he yelled to the crowd, 'For tickets to shows at the Capitol Theatre, call (563)326-8820 or visit TheCapDavenport.com !' And then I woke up. What do you think that one means?"

"I honestly have no idea."
