St. Paul's one of seven Iowa schools to receive 2011 Blue Ribbon School Distinction from US Dept. of Education

Washington, DC – On Tuesday, Rep. Bruce Braley (IA-01) will make a stop at St. Paul the Apostle Catholic School in Davenport to recognize the school for being named a US Department of Education Blue Ribbon School.

St. Paul the Apostle Catholic School in Davenport has been named a 2011 Blue Ribbon School by the US Department of Education. The school, which serves grades K-8, is one of only seven schools in Iowa to receive the award. Braley will meet with the student council and address the student body to recognize their achievement.
