

“Hats Off to the Red, White, & Blue”

Written by Anne Spoden
Monday, 07 June 2010 14:34

- Discount - Omni Group OmniGraffle 5 Professional MAC
- Buy OEM Infinite Skills - Introduction To AJAX With jQuery MAC
- Download Microsoft Windows 8 Pro \(32-bit\)
- Buy OEM Microsoft Office Excel 2010 with SP1 \(32-bit & 64-bit\)
- Buy Autodesk AutoCAD Mechanical 2012 \(64-bit\) \(en\)
- Download ElcomSoft Advanced ARJ Password Recovery 2.0
- 319.95\$ Autodesk Softimage 2014 cheap oem
- Buy Cheap Lynda.com - CSS3 First Look
- Buy OEM Microsoft Office Professional Plus 2013
- 99.95\$ FontLab Fontographer 5 MAC cheap oem
- 199.95\$ Autodesk NavisWorks Manage 2009 cheap oem

Illinois Quad City Chamber of Commerce and the City of East Moline present the theme for the 52nd Annual AMVETS 4th of July Parade

Moline, Illinois— The Illinois Quad City Chamber of Commerce and the City of East Moline are proud to present the 52nd Annual AMVETS 4th of July Parade to take place on Sunday, July 4th at 1:00 pm in downtown East Moline. This year’s theme is “Hats Off to the Red, White & Blue.”

The 52nd Annual AMVETS 4th of July Parade will carry on a tradition for the Quad Cities community of saluting all of the veterans that have served our country. With the theme, “Hats Off to the Red, White & Blue,” the parade will be a spectacular tribute and celebration to those who served.

The Illinois Quad City Chamber of Commerce is currently accepting entries for the parade. To learn more or to enter your business or organization into this parade, contact Anne Spoden at (309) 757-5416 or email aspoden@quadcitychamber.com.

Over 15,000 people are expected to line 15th Avenue in East Moline to watch this salute to our country and our community. The parade will begin at 3rd Street and 15th Avenue, go down 15th Avenue, and end at 13th Street.

“Hats Off to the Red, White, & Blue”

Written by Anne Spoden
Monday, 07 June 2010 14:34

###