The Salvation Army of the Quad Cities
Announces the Christmas Assistance Program

Quad Cities: The Salvation Army's Christmas Assistance Program – a community wide effort – is The Salvation Army's largest outreach event each year. Last year, for example, over 5,000 gifts were distributed to 2,300 children and over 1,900 homes received food.

Families who would like to receive assistance during the holidays must register and complete the application process before December 7th.
