On Thursday, November 14th at approximately 4:54 P.M., The Scott County Sheriff's Office responded to an Attempted Child Abduction in the area of 275th St. just West of 115th

Ave (North of Donahue Iowa), a juvenile male on a bicycle was approached by a white male in a grey minivan. The suspect grabbed the juvenile by the arm in an attempt to pull him into the van. After a short struggle the juvenile got away, the white male suspect jumped into his minivan and sped off.

Suspect description is a white male 40-50 years of age, 6 foot tall, 200-250 lbs and dark hair, no facial hair or glasses. Suspect was wearing a plaid black and red flannel type shirt and ripped up jeans.

Suspect vehicle description is a gray/silver Ford minivan, with a white license plate and red lettering, and some damage to the vehicle.

If you see a suspicious vehicle matching the description above please call 911 immediately.

If you have any information about this incident please contact the Scott County Sheriff's Office.
