Henry Cho, the quick-witted Tennessean-Korean comic with a slow-burning Southern accent, made his splash into the scene via Comedy Central. This special was filmed in his southern hometown of Knoxville, Tennessee.

Being a full-blooded Korean, Cho refers to himself as... well... "South Korean." Henry's TV and film credits include appearances on NBC's The Tonight Show, CBS's The Late, Late, Show, and countless others. He served two years as host of NBC's Friday Night Videos and has made numerous guest appearances on various network sitcoms. Cho's own GAC sitcom, "The Henry Cho Show" debuted in the Fall of 2011.

He can also be heard daily on Sirius/XM and Blue Collar Radio.

"Froe and Cho" will be bringing their side-splitting family friendly comedy to Peoria Civic Center in Peoria, IL
