Back by popular demand, guitar virtuoso Dave Fields, with his “Pot Luck Supper” band, will appear at The Muddy Waters (1708 State St. Bettendorf IA) on Thursday, June 13th, in a show presented by the Mississippi Valley Blues Society. Showtime will be 7:00; admission is $7.00, $5.00 for MVBS members.

If you missed his first Quad City appearance this past February, talk to anyone who was there and they’ll convince you to come out and see this guy. A New York native, Dave Fields has played with the likes of Aretha Franklin, Lenny Kravitz, Hubert Sumlin, Sean Lennon, The Drifters, Tommy James and many more.

He was inducted into the New York Blues Hall of Fame just last year, and his most recent CD, Detonation, was chosen by A1artistspotlight.com as the Blues/Rock CD of the year. Guitar Player magazine also raves about his new CD and promises ...”an exhilarating concert experience if you ever get a chance to see Fields live.”

So here’s your chance. Dave Fields, Thursday, June 13th, 7:00, at the Muddy Waters, Bettendorf.
