The Scott County Historic Preservation Society's next meeting will be held on Sept. 10, 2009 at 7pm. SCHPS will tour the Renwick Mansion, 901 Tremont Ave. The Renwick is Davenport's finest example of Italian Revival Villa architecture. Built by lumber baron James Renwick in 1877, the mansion features 8 marble fireplaces, a three story walnut staircase and an iron crested tower jutting far above the tree tops. Today, the mansion is owned by local preservationist, Senator, Dr. Joe Seng, who rents it for weddings and public events.. Parking is on 10th Street. The meeting is open to the public and free of charge. For more information call Karen Anderson at 563-324-0257
