We are proud to announce the addition to The Institutes's Advisory Board of Douglas Cannon: Attorney Douglas Cannon specializes in the area of Entertainment law, and will be able to advise our Independent Scholars and Artists about the nuances of publishing, the publicity of originals works of Art, Intellectual Property Rights and any allied questions in the area of Independent and original work. A member of the prestigious Chicago Literary Club, Douglas has an extensive practice in law and is a writer himself, presenting his work frequently at the Chicago Literary Club.

Additionally, as we are growing, we have added a new email account which is linked to a Facebook and Twitter dedicated to The Institute. Scott Klarkowski, our Social Media and Public Relations Executive, whose addition to The Institute you are familiar with, is actively working on the Internet and social networking and of The Institute.

The added email is institutecht@gmail.com

We will be sending emails for our weekly and other announcements from this new email. The email narveen@qcinstitute.org is still active, and will continue to be used by me.

Its exciting to see the unfolding of The Institute occurring with all our joint support, good wishes and endorsements.
