MAY 2013

MONTICELLO, IA - On Sunday, May 19, 2013 Camp Courageous will hold the 26th annual "Cruisin' for Camp Courageous" from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Presented by the Cedar Valley Street Rods, it is one of Iowa's largest charity Car Shows and features hundreds of show cars, race cars, and trucks. Located at Camp Courageous just southeast of Monticello IA, this is a family event with a large silent and live auction, food, music, and huge craft show. 5 Marine in dress blues along with a Marine Hummer will be present for this year's show. New this year will be a Poker Walk with a prize for drawing the best hand. Prizes are also available for the 2nd annual "Car Part Art" contest. Pin striping demonstrations will be available and kids will love the games, prizes, and camp's bouncy house! Also, the camp train will be on the track to entertain all ages. Car enthusiasts from everywhere will want to attend this event with all proceeds going to Camp Courageous.

Admission is $5.00 for adults. Children 12 and under are free when accompanied by an adult. This fee will admit you to all events including the car show, entertainment, and much more. Free parking is available.

Camp Courageous is a year-round recreational facility for individuals with special needs and is run on donations, without government assistance, formal sponsorship, or paid fundraisers. In 2012 over 6,000 campers were served.
