Paul to visit both early states this weekend LAKE JACKSON, Texas – Today, the Ron Paul 2012 Presidential Campaign released a schedule of campaign stops for this weekend. Paul will visit both New Hampshire and Iowa, marking his first visit back to the Hawkeye State since his historic showing at the Ames Straw Poll.

Dr. Paul will visit New Hampshire on Friday, August 26th, where he is scheduled to speak to the New Hampshire Sheriffs Association at its charity fundraiser before returning to Iowa on Saturday, August 27th.

Once in Iowa, Dr. Paul will meet with Republican voters in Madison County, sign copies of his best-selling book Liberty Defined, speak at the Iowa Corn Growers Annual Meeting and attend the Polk County Republican Summer Picnic.

Details of the New Hampshire events are as follows. Please note time zones.
