Ron Paul Statement on Herman Cain Campaign Suspension

Written by Gary Howard Monday, 12 December 2011 14:07

Mr. Cain brought energy, enthusiasm to process LAKE JACKSON, Texas – 2012 Republican Presidential candidate Ron Paul released the following statement concerning Herman Cain's suspension of his campaign for the presidency. Below please find brief comments from Congressman Paul:

"Herman Cain brought energy and enthusiasm to the Republican nominating process, as well as a unique perspective on many domestic issues important to voters such as tax code reform and a pro-growth agenda favorable to the private sector.

"In light of his suspension of campaign activities, I want to wish Herman success in his future endeavors."

###