Pick a team and help the troops

This year's BCS championship game is college football's mother lode, a Notre Dame-Alabama showdown for the national title, arguably one of the greatest Championship-game matchups the BSC has ever delivered. And you can take part and help in MAF's first ever BCS "Trooperbowl". Now the BCS title will either go to the Fighting Irish or the Crimson Tide on Monday Jan, 7th but you can decide which team is the Trooper Bowl winner by donating today.

All you have to do is donate on behalf of either Notre Dame's Fighting Irish or Alabama's Crimson Tide

Whichever team has more donations by game time on Monday Jan 7th will win the "Trooperbowl" and in addition to the care packages sent from both teams donations, a special shipment of Care Packages will be sent to a Unit in Afghanistan from the winning team's home state.

If you like College football or if you just like to help the troops, the first annual BCS Trooper bowl is for you. Your donation could turn the tide in deciding which unit in Afghanistan with gets the special BCS Trooperbowl Care Package.
