Denver Cutthroats vs. Quad City Mallards

LAST WEEK

Friday, November 1

Quad City 6 St. Charles

Saturday, November 2

Brampton 4 Quad City 3

QUACK TRACKS

Splitsville

Six different Mallards scored and 13 different players recorded points last Friday in the Mallards' 6-1 defeat of St. Charles- the Mallards' most lopsided win of the season. One night later, the Mallards fell 4-3 in their first ever meeting with the Brampton Beast.

Goals, Goals, Goals

The Mallards have scored 25 goals and conceded 22 over their first five games. They lead the Central Hockey League in goals scored (5.0) per game and allow the second most (4.4) per game. The Mallards last Saturday failed to score at least four goals in a game for the first time.

Home Sweet Home

The Mallards have begun a four-game homestand 1-1-0 and are now 2-2-0 at home this season.

Shoot on Sight

The Mallards average a league-high 40.6 shots per game, allow just 29.4 per outing (second fewest in the league) and have outshot the opposition in each of their first five games.

Twice as Nice

Vladimir Nikiforov (2-6-8) has recorded two points in each of his last four games.

Stop Sign

Last Saturday against Brampton the Mallards' Mike Hellyer (4-4-8) and Mike Stinziani (4-4-8) both went pointless for the first time this season

High Five

Mike Monfredo (0-5-5) has picked up an assist in each of the Mallards' first five games.

Hello/Goodbye

Defenseman Corbin Baldwin was assigned to the Mallards by the American Hockey League's Iowa Wild Saturday, scored in his Mallard debut Saturday night against Brampton and was recalled by Iowa Sunday.

Trifecta

Benjamin Dieude-Fauvel set a personal career high and matched a league season high by posting three assists- all in the third period- last Friday.

Between The Pipes

Thomas Heemskirk last Friday made 27 saves and allowed just one St. Charles goal while posting the first win by a Mallard starting goaltender this season.

Firsts

Like Baldwin, Jeff Lee and Nicholas Rioux (last Friday) both scored their first Mallard goals last weekend...Heemskirk's win last Friday was his first as a Mallard...Thomas Frazee recorded his first Mallard point- an assist- last Friday.

Milestones

Jordan Lane last Saturday played his one hundredth career game...With his goal last Friday Nicholas Rioux reached 50 career points... Matt Duffy has notched 96 career points...Gabriel Levesque has played 96 career games...Darren McMillan has collected 93 career CHL assists.

Special Teams

The Mallards last Friday against St. Charles set a league season high by scoring four power goals (on 12 opportunities). Three of those goals came on 5-on-3 advantages. The Mallards rank fourth in the CHL in power play efficiency (20.0 percent). The Mallards, who have allowed a power play goal in each of their last four games, rank seventh in penalty killing (78.9 percent).

Head to Head

The Mallards this Friday meet the Denver Cutthroats for the first time this season. That game is the first of four straight between the two clubs. After hosting the Cutthroats this Friday and Saturday, the Mallards will visit in Denver for games November 15 and 16. After next weekend, the Mallards will not see the Cutthroats again until they wrap up the season series by playing three straight games against Denver on March 12, 14 and 15. The Mallards last year went 4-1-0 overall and 3-0-0 at home against Denver in what was the Cutthroats' first season.

UPCOMING HOME GAMES

Friday, November 8, 7:05 p.m. - Mallards vs. Denver Cutthroats

$1 Dog/$1 Beer Night Presented by 97X and MetroLINK

Every Friday night home game this season is a $1 Dog/$1 Beer Night of the season presented by 97X. Fans will be able to purchase $1 beer and $1 hot dogs at iWireless Center concession stands during each of those Friday tilts.

Food Drive to Benefit Christian Care Domestic Violence Shelter and Rescue Mission

Fans who donate canned food items at the iWireless Center will receive coupons good $1 off the price of a walk-up ticket to this Friday's game for each item donated (up to a maximum of $3 off per ticket). Canned food items will be donated to Christian Care Domestic Violence Shelter and Rescue Mission in Rock Island.

Saturday, November 9, 7:05 p.m.- Mallards vs. Denver Cutthroats
Military Appreciation Night

The Mallards will recognize those who have served in the armed forces with Military Appreciation Night this Saturday when the team plays its last home game before Veterans' Day. All current and former members of the military and their families can purchase tickets to that game for just $5. The Mallards would like to thank the numerous local businesses and season ticket holders who have already purchased Military Night tickets that have been donated to current and former military personnel and their families.
