MOLINE/QUAD CITIES RESIDENTS GETAWAY TO TAMPA BAY

MOLINE, Ill.– Allegiant (NASDAQ: ALGT), today inaugurates low-cost, nonstop travel service between Moline/Quad Cities, Ill., and the Tampa Bay, Fla., area.

The company, known for its exceptional travel deals, is celebrating the new service with fares as low as each way between the two cities. Guaranteeing the lowest prices on its hotel packages, customers will also save an additional $20* off their air when they book with an Allegiant preferred hotel.

“We are extremely pleased to again expand the Allegiant brand of low-fare, nonstop, jet service in Moline/Quad Cities,” Andrew C. Levy, Allegiant Travel Company President, said. “This is an exciting new addition for our airline and our customers as we launch the only low-cost service between Moline/Quad Cities and the Tampa Bay area.”

“I am extremely pleased that today Allegiant is starting the much-anticipated service to the Tampa Bay area,” Bruce Carter, Director of Aviation at the Quad City International Airport, said. “With the recent successes of the Las Vegas and Phoenix-Mesa flights, and today’s start of the Tampa Bay/St. Petersburg service, Allegiant’s presence in the Quad City market is strengthened. Our partnership continues to flourish and we hope to see growth for existing and new routes with Allegiant in the future.”
