This year's Festival Collectable will be a set of decorative keys. Each of the thirteen towns along the Red Carpet Corridor will have a limited number of its own "key to the city" which they will give to Red Carpet Corridor Festival travelers. By stopping at each of the towns and collecting all 13 keys, the traveling festival attendee will be awarded a special commemorative key chain to hold the keys. Supplies of the keys are very limited and will be distributed only in person on a first-come, first-served basis. No telephone, mail, or email requests please.
