The Independent Scholars' Evening and Celtic Heritage Trail of the Quad Cities present the third of their four presentations this Thursday, March 20, 2008 at 7 p.m. at the Moline Club in downtown Moline. This week's presentation starts with Celtic tunes performed on bagpipes by Dr. Kirk Witherspoon of Moline, Illinois. Dr. Witherspoon's performance will be followed by a presentation on Celtic Art by Black Hawk College Professor Emeritus and renowned Quad City artist, Bill Hannan of Moline, Illinois. Bill's presentation will include a discussion and views of early Celtic art with a foray into some contemporary examples. This presentation is free and open to the public.
