March 1st. 2012 Independent Scholars' Evenings is reserved for: “ Enfolded: An Ordinary Story of God's Love” original short story written and presented

An

by

Roger Farinha

At

The Independent Scholars' Evenings

7.00 pm

The Moline Commercial Club

1530 Fifth Avenue.

2nd floor.

A spiritual short story chronicling the journey of an ordinary, "unfortunate" man through life; and how the Love of God overtook him, and all his family.

Roger Farinha was born in British Guyana in 1971 and immigrated with his family to the US at the age of 9 years. He became a naturalized citizen in New York at the age of 16, and went on to earn a Bachelors in the History of Modern philosophy, and a masters of Liberal Studies through Fordham University. Most recently, Farinha spent six years as a big-rig trucker, talking to his fellow Americans as a part of his book writing project, the manuscript of which is entitled The New Walden; and the conclusion of which heralded an economic justice message which flowered into his most recent organizing activities in the Quad Cities in the Occupy Wall Street spirit.
