DAVENPORT, Iowa -- May 24, 2012 -- Genesis Health System is proud to be a sponsor of summer in the Quad Cities.

"Genesis Health System enjoys sponsoring a wide range of community events that contribute to our diverse and vibrant quality of life and promote wellness," said Ken Croken, vice president of corporate communications and business development, Genesis Health System. "An active community with quality events like these help us recruit and retain health professionals to the community."

Kicking off the summer is the Quad Cities Criterium bike races on Monday, May 28 on the streets of downtown Rock Island. Genesis is the presenting sponsor.

Genesis will also sponsor the Susan G. Komen Quad Cities Race for the Cure as founding sponsor on June 9 in Moline; Father's Day with the River Bandits to benefit Genesis Cancer Care Institute and the fight against prostate cancer, June 17; Red, White & Boom bi-state Independence Day celebration on Tuesday, July 3; Genesis Firecracker Run in East Moline on Wednesday, July 4, in East Moline; Camp Genesis, a free camp experience for children with cancer in their families, July 8-13; and, Quad-City Times Bix 7 on Saturday, July 28 in Davenport.

More events may be added later.

The Criterium is first on the schedule, starting at 8 a.m. on Monday. The event attracts top amateur and professional bike racers from all over the country. There are events for juniors, men, women and masters riders.

For information on the Quad Cities Criterium, go to www.quadcitiescriterium.com.
