Will see firsthand affects of recent drought

Washington, D.C. – Congressman Dave Loebsack will tour farms in Clinton and Scott counties TOMORROW, August 16th to see firsthand the effects of the recent drought. He will meet with farmers, community members and representatives from Farm Bureau. Loebsack has been leading the fight in Congress to ensure Iowa's farmers have the resources they need to deal with the impact of the drought. Media is invited to attend. Details are below.
