The Davenport Rotary Club's Inaugural WingFest will be held June 22, from 11 am - 5 pm, at the Mississippi Valley Fairgrounds. "This celebration of the popular chicken wing appetizers, or Buffalo wings, will be a first for the Quad Cities," according to club president Cheryl Goodwin, "and the proceeds will be distributed to local charities through our club's annual granting process." Six area vendors will compete for the recognition of "Best Quad City Wings" at the event. Vendors confirmed as of press time are Buffalo Wild Wings, Famous Dave's, Hooters, Thunder Bay, Rivals Sports Bar & Grill, and Rusty Nail Bar & Grill. Admission to the event includes two wings from each of the vendors (additional wings can be purchased), live entertainment, a Kid's Zone, and a live remote by Dwyer and Michaels from 97X. Beer and soft drinks will be available for purchase.

The Rotary WingFest Kid's Zone will feature attractions by Jumpin Joey's to include: The Baseball Game, Basketball Game, an Inflatable Slide and Obstacle Course. In addition the Davenport Police & Fire Departments will be on hand with a Swat Team Truck and Mobile Playground. The Red Cross will also provide interactive activities for the children. Kid's food will be available for purchase.
