Volunteer Opportunities

Information March 24, 26 & 30, 2011

Davenport, Iowa – March, 2011 – The Figge Art Museum currently has volunteer opportunities available in the areas of education programs, family activity center, visitor services, community outreach and studio classes. Individuals who have an interest in community volunteerism or Quad City Art and Culture may register for the March volunteer information sessions.

The information sessions for prospective volunteers will be held Thursday, March 24, 2011 from 2pm-3:30pm OR Saturday, March 26, 2011 from 11am-12:30pm OR Wednesday, March 30, 2011, from 10am-11:30am, at the Figge Art Museum. These sessions will be geared specifically to adults and students, who are interested in volunteering and community support opportunities in art education, public relations, administrative support, community outreach and visitor services. The session will include an introduction of volunteer opportunities, a museum orientation and application procedures. To register for this session, please call Museum Services Director Jennifer Brooke, 563-326-7804, ext. 2048.

Volunteering at the Figge is a great way to support your community by sharing your personal and professional experience with a non profit organization. For more information, please visit
