Tour special exhibition of American Chairs with docents

The Figge Art Museum presents the art talk “Goldilocks’ Dilemma” at 7 pm Thursday, July 7. The talk is offered in conjunction with the special exhibition The Art of Seating: 200 Years of American Chair Design. Sandy Fritz, Judie Lance, Lois Nichols, Stephanie Rapahel-Nakos will talk about their favorite chairs: a Shaker rocking chair (c.1840), an office chair designed by Frank Lloyd Wright for his Johnson Wax Company building in Racine, Wisconsin, and a “Texas Longhorn Chair” (ca. 1890) made with actual horns. The talk lasts 30 minutes.

The Art of Seating will be on view at the Figge through September 4. The exhibition is developed by the Museum of Contemporary Art Jacksonville and the Jacobsen Collection of American Art, and organized by International Art & Artists, Washington, D.C. For additional exhibition-related programs, please visit the Figge website at www.figgeart.org.

Admission to the museum and tour is $7. Admission is free to Figge members and institutional members.
