Quad City Arts presents the 35th Annual High School Invitational at the Quad City Arts Center April 14-May 17. The exhibition is free, open to the public and includes a community reception and award ceremony on Friday April 20th from 6:30-9 p.m.

This exhibition features the Quad Cities' most promising young artists with paintings, drawings, sculptures, ceramics and mixed media. Art students and teachers are eligible for over $2000 in prizes from sponsorships and entry fees. The major exhibition sponsor this year is The Butterworth Center and Deere-Wiman House Foundation, with other sponsorships by Evergreen Art Works and Major Art & Hobby Center. Scholastic awards will also be presented by members of the Left Bank Art League and The Rock Island Art Guild. Other awards have been established by local artists in the areas of jewelry, ceramics, photography, nature themes and sculpture.

A list of the students and prizes will follow this press release upon selection. Winners will be available for interviews and photographs at the awards reception on April 20th after 7:30 pm.

The Quad City Arts Center Gallery is located at 1715 Second Avenue in the Arts and Entertainment District of Rock Island. Gallery hours are Tuesday-Friday 10 a.m.-5 p.m. and Saturday 11 a.m.-5 p.m. All Quad City Arts programs are funded in part by Festival of Trees; Quad City Arts P artners; and operating grants from the Illinois Arts Council, a state agency; and the Iowa Arts Council, a division of the Department of Cultural Affairs. Quad City Arts is a nonprofit local arts agency dedicated to the growth and vitality of the Quad City region through the presentation, development and celebration of the
