Left Bank Art League is an organization of around 100 artists and supporters of the arts in the Quad Cities. Our primary focus is to encourage education in art, as well as regularly meet together to work on our art together, sponsor and participate in art workshops and network. This competition was held at the Quad City Arts in Rock Island, IL.

Congratulations go out to –

Caitlyn Doran, a senior at Moline High School won with her piece titled “Inside the Bear”. It was created in watercolor and ink. Caitlyn’s instructor is Nick Digioia.

Max McInnis, a 10th grader in Bettendorf and student of Mrs. B’s School of Art won with his piece titled “Water Runner”. It was created in acrylic. His instructor is Pat Bereskin.
