Davenport, IA- The German American Heritage Center is proud to announce two fantastic genealogy workshops on Sunday, October 21st presented by Theresa Liewer. Session one will be covering the topics of Naturalization and Passenger lists from 12:30-2:00 and session two will discuss Military Records from 2:30-3:30. Preregistration is required. The cost is $10 for members and $15 for nonmembers per session. Call 563-322-8844 or email kelly.lao@gahc.org to sign up today!

Theresa Liewer has been a member of the Iowa Genealogical Society for over 35 years, is a past president, and teaches classes there on a volunteer basis. She'll take you on a step by-step journey through the naturalization process in the 19th and early 20th centuries, the records that are created, and where they can be found. She'll also discuss immigration records where they can be found, with emphasis on online locating tips! Military record essentials from the Revolutionary War through WW II will be reviewed. Theresa combines information with just a touch of humor to send you away enthused about finding your family records!

October is German American Month! Let's Celebrate!
