Davenport, IA- The German American Heritage Center is Celebrating Richard Wagner with a program by Don Wooten on Sunday, February 17th at 2pm. Don will explore the scandalous life and revolutionary works of Richard Wagner, along with comments on the ways directors have struggled to bring his plots and characters to life on the stage.

2013 is the 200th anniversary of this German composer, theatre director, and conductor known primarily for his operas. Come for a lively discussion and presentation!

The German American Heritage Center is located at 712 W 2nd St. Davenport, Ia. Admission is $5 Adults, $4 Seniors, $3 Children, and free for members. For more information, contact Kelly at 563-322-8844 or kelly.lao@gahc.org.
