

Program on 48ers, Revolutionary immigrants in Davenport

Written by Kelly Lao

Monday, 18 March 2013 07:29

- Discount - Adobe Audition CC MAC \(Full LifeTime License\)
- Buy Panic Unison 2 MAC \(en\)
- Discount - Microsoft FrontPage 2003
- Discount - Autodesk AutoCAD Plant 3D 2014 \(32-bit\)
- 199.95\$ CorelDRAW Technical Suite X6 \(64-bit\) cheap oem
- Download Parallels Desktop 8 MAC
- 269.95\$ Autodesk AutoCAD Mechanical 2011 cheap oem
- Buy Cheap Solidworks 2013 Premium \(64-bit\)
- Discount - Autodesk AutoCAD Plant 3D 2014 \(32-bit\)
- Buy Cheap Autodesk Smoke 2013 MAC
- Buy OEM Telestream ScreenFlow 3 MAC
- 149.95\$ Microsoft Expression Studio 4 Ultimate cheap oem
- Buy Photoshop CS3 for Screen Printers \(en\)

Davenport, IA- Some of the most influential people in early Davenport were the German 1848'ers; they came and prospered in this once small river town. Join Dr. Joachim (Yogi) Reppmann for a historical perspective on these important immigrants on Sunday, March 24th at the German American Heritage Center. A social begins the program at 1:30pm with Dr. Reppmann speaking at 2pm. Join us for a Wreath Ceremony to follow the event on Gaines Street.

Admission is $5 Adults, $4 Seniors, $3 Kids, and free for members. The German American Heritage Center is located at 712 W 2nd St. Davenport, IA. For more information on this event and other programming call 563-322-8844 or visit gahc.org.