Davenport, Iowa (July 11, 2013) – Families are invited to pop into the Figge Art Museum on Saturday for a free family day from 10 a.m. – 1 p.m. The theme is pop art which coincides with the current American Pop! exhibition now on view in the third floor gallery.

As part of the free family day the museum will offer printmaking, collage projects focusing on classic diner eats, story time from 10:30-11:30 a.m. and 12-1 p.m., a 20 minute family-friendly animated film about artist Andy Warhol showing at 10:45 a.m. and 11:45 a.m. and treats inspired by the '50s and '60s..

Visitors will have the chance to see all the museum exhibitions and family spaces while enjoying some quality family time. A 1:30 p.m. docent-guided tour of the Questionable Architecture exhibition will also be offered.

This free family day is sponsored by Butler Insurance. For more information, visit www.figgeartmuseum.org
