Marriage Can Be Murder returns this summer

Written by Shelley Klimes Saturday, 28 May 2011 12:59

Amana – It's back by overwhelming popular demand! The Old Creamery's production of Marriage Can Be Murder is returning to the Ox Yoke Inn, Amana after all performances were sold out last February.

This is a wedding you'll not forget. A flirty bridesmaid who has a thing for the groom, an over-the-top wedding planner, a spoiled rotten bride and an unsolved murder would spell disaster for any other wedding. But, in The Old Creamery's production of Marriage Can Be Murder, it only brings on the laughs.

Marriage Can Be Murder, by James Daab returns to the Ox Yoke Inn for only four performances: July 6, 7, 13 and 14. The cast consists of Old Creamery regulars Kamille Zbanek of Ely; T.J. Besler of Manchester; Tom Milligan and Deborah Kennedy of East Amana; Jackie McCall and Sean McCall of Marengo; and Nicholas Hodge of Marion.

The evening includes a mouth watering Ox Yoke Inn meal with choice of entrée, beverage and dessert. Performance times are 6 p.m. Seating begins at 5:30 p.m. Cost is $45 per person for dinner and the show and includes all gratuity and tax. Because the action takes place during dinner, show only tickets are not available. Call today or you might miss this wild wedding!

For reservations, call the Ox Yoke Inn, Amana at 800-233-3441.

The Old Creamery Theatre Company is a not-for-profit professional theatre founded in 1971 in Garrison, Iowa. The company is celebrating 40 years of bringing live, professional theatre to the people of Iowa and the Midwest. We thank KGAN and Fox 28, our 2011 season media sponsor.