Ron Paul Two-Day Tour to Include 'Restore America Now' Meetings, Interviews, voter outreach, GOP fundraiser, and Thanksgiving Family Forum round out visit ANKENY, Iowa – 2012 Republican Presidential candidate Ron Paul will return to Iowa for a two-day comprehensive tour consisting of media, voter and GOP outreach activities.

The visit will occur on Friday and Saturday, November 18-19. Day one of Dr. Paul's visit will include a live in-studio interview with WHO Radio's Jan Mickelson, followed by three 'Restore America Now' meetings. Day two includes a Warren County Republican Party breakfast fundraiser, an editorial board meeting with the Des Moines Register, followed by a Thanksgiving Family Forum held by The Family Leader.

"Ron Paul's latest visit gives our campaign ample opportunity to reach voters directly and indirectly concerning the pressing issues Iowans are facing," said Drew Ivers, Iowa Chair for the Ron Paul 2012 Presidential campaign.

"A national debt now equal to GDP, and joblessness, are on Iowans' minds. Make no mistake Ron Paul will be as forthcoming with the people as he's been throughout this whole election cycle," said Mr. Ivers.

Details of the visit are as follows. All times Central.
