Amana – Join The Old Creamery Theatre for an all-new show filled with favorite holiday and popular music from the 1940s. G. I. Holiday Jukebox, a patriotic Christmas musical, opens on The Old Creamery's Main Stage Thursday, Nov. 15 at 3 p.m. and runs through Dec. 16. You'll hear songs like "Baby It's Cold Outside," "I'll Be Home for Christmas," "Moonlight in Vermont" "Button Up Your Overcoat" and many others to warm your heart.

The cast of G. I. Holiday Jukebox consists of Deborah Kennedy of West Amana, Sean McCall of Marengo, T.J. Besler of Manchester and Stacia McKee of Coralville. Musicians are Tim Daugherty of Cedar Rapids (on piano), Riley Scheetz of Cedar Falls (on bass) and Ryan Milligan of West Amana (on drums).

Directed by Tom Milligan of West Amana with musical direction by Shari Rhoads of Coralville, G. I. Holiday Jukebox is rated Theatre G. Tickets are $27 for adults and $17.50 for students. Show times are Wednesdays, Thursdays, Saturdays and Sundays at 3 p.m. and Fridays and Saturdays at 7:30 p.m.

Walk-ins are welcome if seats are still available. Reservations are recommended. Call the box office at 800-35-AMANA (352-6262) or visit us online at oldcreamery.com. Student rush tickets are $12. No reservations accepted for rush tickets. Come to the box office no earlier than 30 minutes before a performance for this special rate. A student ID is required.

The Old Creamery Theatre Company is a not-for-profit professional theatre founded in 1971 in Garrison, Iowa. The company has been bringing live, professional theatre to the people of Iowa and the Midwest for 41 years.
