Amana – Falling in love again was not something Ralph was expecting. Fate however had other ideas for this lively widower and a different path home one evening leads him to Carol and changes his life.

Don't miss The Last Romance, a funny account of second chances and the surprises life can bring, opening on The Old Creamery Theatre's Main Stage April 25. The Last Romance was written by Joe DiPietro and is directed by Krista Neumann of Iowa City. The cast consists of Troy Bruchwalski of Cleveland, OH, Tom Milligan of West Amana, Rachael Lindhart of Iowa City and Licia Watson of Kansas City, MO.

Tickets are $27.50 for adults and $18 for students. Show times are Wednesdays, Thursdays and Sundays at 3 p.m. and Fridays and Saturdays at 7:30 p.m. Student rush tickets are available half an hour before performances. A student ID is required to get this special rate of $12 per ticket. Group rates are also available.

The Last Romance is sponsored by Cedar Rapids Hearing Center with media sponsors Mature Focus Magazine and KGYM. The show runs through May 26.

Call the box office at 800-35-AMANA or visit the website at www.oldcreamery.com for tickets or more information. Walk-ins are always welcome if seats are available. Reservations are highly recommended.

The Old Creamery Theatre Company is a not-for-profit professional theatre founded in 1971 in Garrison, Iowa. The company is celebrating 42 years of bringing live, professional theatre to the people of Iowa and the Midwest.
