PELLA, (02/04/2014)(readMedia)-- Central College sophomore Daniel Kuttler, a native of Davenport, will be in Central's theater performance of "The Ice Fishing Play" by Kevin Kling. Four performances will show from Feb. 26-March 1 at the Kruidenier Center on Central's campus. All show times are 7:30 p.m.

"The Ice Fishing Play" introduces a man in an icehouse on a frozen lake who just wants to fish for the proverbial big catch in peace and quiet. Kevin Kling is a well-known humorist, playwright and storyteller, and his commentaries can be heard on NPR's All Things Considered. His plays and adaptations have been performed around the world.

Ann Wilkinson, instructor of theater, will direct the performances.

Cost for general admission tickets is $6. Student and senior citizen tickets are $3 and admission is free with a Central ID. Tickets are available at the Maytag Box Office or at the door on the night of the performance. For more information, contact Wilkinson at 641-628-5234 or wilkins@central.edu
