

River Cities'
Reader presents the 2008

Annual Manual FOR THE ARTS

694 • Volume 15 • July 23-29, 2008

The River Cities' Reader's second Annual Manual for the Arts features more than 250 listings covering art, theatre, music, dance, and the literary arts, from places to see an art exhibit or live music to organizations that offer classes to major festivals in and around the Quad Cities.

Whether you're an artist, an aspiring artist, or simply an arts patron, we hope you find the Annual Manual for the Arts useful – a resource to keep year-round. It's the only publication in the Quad Cities that comprehensively lists arts venues and organizations, and it includes street addresses, Web addresses, phone numbers, and other useful information.

We've updated and added to our listings, and our aim is always to be as comprehensive and accurate as possible. If there's something incorrect, or if you'd like to be included in next year's Annual Manual for the Arts, please e-mail (jeff@rcreader.com) with the words "Annual Manual" in the subject line.

We're always looking for ways to improve the Annual Manual, too, so if you have ideas for making it better, send a note to the e-mail address above.

Thank you Quad Cities

I want to thank every one of my customers at Boozies Bar & Grill over the last 14 years, for their business. It was a great experience making people happy for so long.

Now I'm excited about my new career at Lujacks Auto Plaza. I'm able to assist you in any new or used vehicle at the largest inventory in the Midwest. No hassle/no pressure just the same great customer service you're used to with me.

Please don't hesitate to call me with any questions you may have.

Want your child to be musical?

Research proves that early integration of music into your children's routine means improving their ability to think, reason, create, and express. That's why we start from the earliest ages, with Kindermusik® classes for newborns and their parents, up to age seven. We also know how the study of music aids in physical, emotional, social, language, and cognitive development, especially math and spatial relationship skills. So we continue with private lessons in piano, voice, guitar, and more, from age 7 to 97! We accept check, cash, and credit/debit cards to provide easy payment options and we have convenient locations for lessons near you.

Fall Semester

Starts Aug. 4th

The Academy for the Arts in Rock Island offers:
Private lessons in piano, voice, guitar, woodwinds, and more, in Moline and Rock Island.
Kindermusik® classes for newborns to age 7, including Sign and Sing and FamilyTime
Free Kindermusik®
Demonstration Classes
July 25, 28, 30
Reasons to choose our Kindermusik program:
1. Convenient locations in Davenport, Rock Island, Bettendorf and Muscatine!
2. Morning and evening class times
3. Classes for all age groups

MUSIC

This Week at Daytrotter

It has been a furious two days, as late this Monday we confirmed what is just one of a number of flood-benefit shows that we're looking at staging here in the Quad Cities over the next month. We've been talking with some great bands about coming in here and donating their talents to help out those who lost a lot in the recent floods here in Iowa. All door proceeds for the show will go to local flood victims.

We found out less than 48 hours ago that the wonderful and talented Ingrid Michaelson will be playing a special happy-hour Daytrotter Presents show today, Wednesday, July 23, right here at Huckleberry's Pizza Parlor. Michaelson you'll know from her hit single "The Way I Am," which was prominently featured on an Old Navy commercial this past winter and much of last year. It's a great song and the rest of her debut record follows suit. She's one of the most talented young songwriters in the country, and she's currently on tour with the Dave Matthews Band. Tickets should go fast for this one, so if you're interested in reserving tickets for the 5 p.m. show, write to (daytrotter@gmail.com). It is first come, first served on e-mail.

We're also extremely excited to be presenting the Tapes 'N Tapes show August 14 at the Redstone Room. Our buddies Driver of the Year will be playing, and it should be a fantastic time. We'll be announcing a whole mess of August and September shows next week. Thanks so much for your support.
